Dr. Allen Sapp, OC, RCA
1928–2015

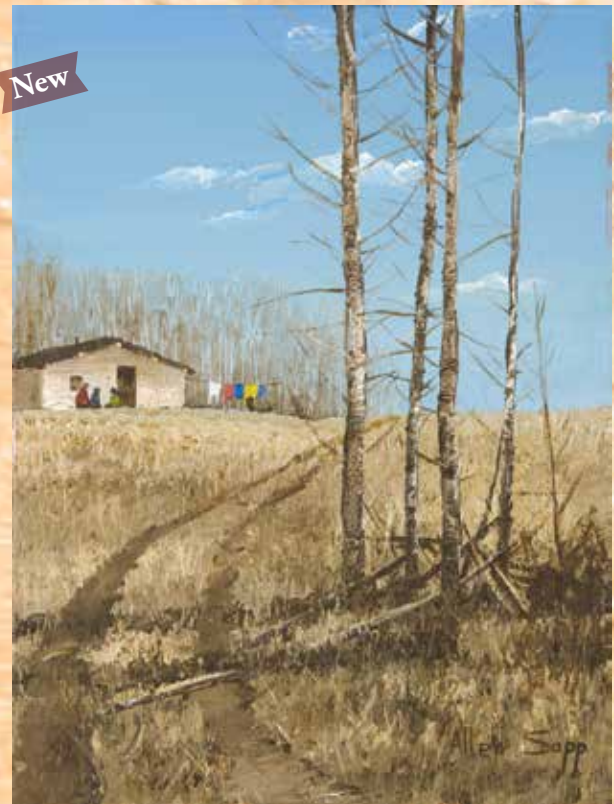

World-renowned Cree artist Allen Sapp is recognized as one of Canada's preeminent painters and is a recipient of the Order of Canada, the Saskatchewan Order of Merit, the National Aboriginal Lifetime Achievement Award, and holds an honorary doctorate from the University of Regina.

Allen was born in 1928 on the Red Pheasant Reserve, south of the city of North Battleford. His mother suffered from tuberculosis and eventually died during his adolescence.

Allen was raised by his maternal grandparents, Albert and Maggie Soonias. In 1966 he met Dr. Allan Gonor. Dr. Gonor recognized Allen's talent and encouraged him to paint what he knew – life on the reserve. By the 1970s Allen's work was known across North America and as far away as London, England.

Allen was for the most part a self-taught artist. He is said to have worked "instinctively" with a photographic memory; painting the pictures he saw in his mind. His paintings tell a personal story, but many appreciate them for their ability to go beyond that and represent a generation of Cree people and many other prairie inhabitants of the same era. His work allows viewers to reflect upon the hardships of the past and remember friendship and family, as well as a less complicated way of life. Allen's paintings masterfully depict First Nations culture, the simple elegance of rural life, and the beauty of Saskatchewan.
